

WALSH WILL STAR
FOR HIGHLANDERS

NEWS OF ALL BRANCHES OF SPORT

EDITED BY
ROBERT EDGRENBoxing on the Decline in the French CapitalFailure of Jack Johnson to Meet
All Comers Has Disgruntled
Parisians and They Lose Interest in the Game.

By John Pollock.

THE boxing game in Paris is attracting small crowds just now that it is expected all the American fighters who went over last week will be back in this country within the next four weeks. Two of them have already returned. They are Johnny Daly and Fighting Joe Hyland. The failure of Jack Johnson to fight any of the American heavyweights has so disgusted the Parisians that they have refused to patronize any of the boxing shows held there. The only fighter that can draw a big crowd when he battles is George Carpentier, the French champion and idol of France. The bout between Young Ahearn, the American, and Badoux, the Frenchman, drew 500; that between Joe Hyland, the American, and Pipan, champion of France, 400, while the go between Paul Tili and the Pontonier, the French featherweight, drew 500.

Leon Cross, who was extended a special invitation by Willie Ritchie to attend the dinner which is to be tendered to him by Billy Gibson at the Criticism Cafe, in the Bronx, tonight, will not be present. Leach, with his wife and baby, his brother, Sam Walsh, and his trainer, Harry Lee, left for Los Angeles, Cal., last night to get ready for his bout with Joe Rivers at Vernon, Cal., Nov. 21.

Joe "Young" Shugrue of Jersey City and Johnny Harvey of Harlem have been matched to meet for ten rounds at a special show of the Fairmont A. C. of the Bronx on next Wednesday night. Shugrue was to have fought Jack Britton on Nov. 18 at the Atlantic Garden A. C., but as Dan Morgan wanted a big guarantee for Britton the match fell through.

Harry Pollok, manager of Freddie Welsh, is still chasing after Willie Ritchie. Pollok says that if Ritchie will agree to fight Welsh he will guarantee him a purse of $25,000 for a twenty-round bout in England. Ritchie in return says he will fight Welsh if he first defeats Jack Britton.

A match has been clinched between Johnny Dundee, the local lightweight, and Charley White of Chicago, who is regarded as one of the best in the West.

At present, they will meet in a ten-round bout at the Pelican Baseball Park in New Orleans on Thanksgiving Day.

Al Lippe, who is still in Paris with some American fighters, will sail from England for Australia on Dec. 5 with Jeff Smith, the middleweight, and Frank Dougherty, the welterweight, both of this country, and Ned Williams, an English fighter who, Lippe says, is the real goods. Lippe is to get big guarantees for his three fighters.

The Postman A. C. of Brooklyn has two good ten-round bouts carded for its regular weekly show to-night. In the first one Eddie Wallace and Philly McGovern will clash and in the main bout Dave ("Young") Korts of Newark will exchange wallop with Soldier Barnfield of Newark.

A battle between heavyweights will be fought before the Post A. C. of Pittsburgh on Saturday night. The principals will be Fred McKay of Winnipeg, Canada, and Dan Dailley, the growing "white hope" of Cleveland, who knocked out Al Paine in two rounds. They will box six rounds.

Packey McFarland has asked his manager, Ed Miller, to arrange all the bouts he can secure for him with fighters that will agree to meet him at 142 pounds, weigh in at 3 P. M. "I will not fight any man over that weight," said Packey, "for at that weight I am good and strong."

Billy Pank, the middleweight of Kenosha, Ill., has announced his retirement from the ring. Billy will go into business and open up several cigar stores in the West.

The ten-round scrap between Mike Gibbons, the St. Paul light middleweight, and Marty Rowan of Brooklyn, who defeated Billy Pank in an eight-round bout at St. Louis a few weeks ago, will be decided at the Twynford A. C. of South Brooklyn to-morrow night.

Another "white hope" from the West is due to arrive in town. He is Jack Lester, the heavyweight of Seattle, Wash., who was first brought out by Tommy Burns, the ex-heavyweight champion. Lester has boxed in Australia and was recently knocked out in a few rounds by Sam Langford at Taft, Cal.

Three local clubs have arranged their main bout for their show on Saturday night. Willie Warren and Frankie Confrey will fight at the Fairmont A. C. Charley A. C. of Jersey City and Bert Stanley of Milwaukee will clash at the Brown Gymnasium A. A. and Freddie Hicks of Detroit and Tommy Pearce will follow each other at the Irving A. C. of Brooklyn.

COACHING THE BULLDOG (If Having More Coaches Than Players)
Counts—Yale Ought to Win

Haughton Gives Odds
That Yale Beats TigersThis Proves That Harvard
Coach Has Greatest Respect
This Year for Eli Team.

(Special to The Evening World.)
CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Nov. 13.—Yale with its quarterback Wilson, its backs Cornell and Knowles, impersonated by members of Harvard's second football team, will be the array that will face the varsity eleven this afternoon in a rugged scrimmage. Reggie Brown, who scores for the Crimson, has carried to Cambridge some of the formation employed by Yale in its game with Brown Saturday and has given the scrubs a thorough drill on how these plays are launched by the Blue team. The regulars will be called upon to stop the New Haven assaults of the second eleven and their work will be closely watched to see how the regular eleven is handling itself in its new make up.

That Coach Haughton has the greatest respect for the Yale eleven is evidenced by the fact that he has taken the short end of a 2 to 1 bet that Yale will defeat Princeton Saturday. Haughton has wagered $50 in New York at these odds and stated to-day that he is out to cover some more coin at the same odds.

Track Hardwick's first day as an end has caused considerable rejoicing in camp. He is playing hard and fast and gives promise of being well able to take care of the majority of plays directed towards his hangout. Eddie Mahan's punting over the wires stretched out aloft from one side of the stadium to the other has improved rapidly. His drives are heavenward with just enough distance and sufficient turn to allow his ends to make where the ball

To the Sporting Editor:
Kindly answer the following questions in your query column:
1. Did Devlin play third base for the Giants a few years ago?
2. Was not Bridwell with the Giants about five years ago and considered the best short stop at that time?
3. About how many different curves has a league pitcher?
4. Hasn't Ford of the Yankees the most curved balls?
A. E. PATTERSON.

To the Sporting Editor:
(a) When was the National League organized?
(b) When was the first world's series played: between whom, and who was the winner?
(c) Who is the oldest player now playing in either the National or the American League?
FRED MULLER.

(d) First one under National Commission rule was played in 1905 between Giants and Athletics.
(e) Matthews, in point of service.
Kindly let me know through your paper whether an outsider can enter in the boxing tournament which will be held by the New York Athletic Club in November, and how I can enter if I may.
H. G.

Apply to the A. A. U. at No. 21 Warren street, New York City. You must be an amateur to compete.
To the Sporting Editor:
Let me know are there any ball-players in the National and American Leagues that are of Hebrew descent.
AN EVENING WORLD READER.
Yes.

To the Sporting Editor:
Kindly inform me through your column what became of Ed Mathey, the young Georgetown University catcher, signed by McGraw last season.
He was released and didn't, as far as we know, sign up with any other team.
To the Sporting Editor:
Kindly decide this wager for me: A bet Pittsburgh has the largest baseball field in the world. B bet Philadelphia Americans have. Who wins?
E. A. ROESCH.

Pittsburgh is considered one of the largest fields in the country.
To the Sporting Editor:
Kindly inform me as to the date that Mitchell knocked John L. Sullivan off his feet in Madison Square Garden and whether John L. and Mitchell down when Capt. Williams jumped into the ring. I claim it was in 1888. B claims 1885.

stage that Capt. Williams jumped into the ring and stopped the fight. The bout goes on the record books as a victory for Sullivan.

To the Sporting Editor:
Did Lou Crook ever knock out Jack Dorman? Also how many times have they met? CHARLES McDONALD.
—Cross and Dorman have fought three times, two of the bouts going the limit of ten rounds and one of them ending in a K. O. in Crook's favor. The first bout was held on Oct. 11, 1910; the second on Nov. 5, 1910, and the third on Sept. 4, 1911.

To the Sporting Editor:
What is the nationality and what is the right name of Joseph G. Gallagher.
JOE GALLAGHER.
Cross is an American of Jewish descent, born in this city on Feb. 12, 1886. His real name is Louis G. Wallace.

To the Sporting Editor:
Is Ritchie's championship at stake in a four, six or ten-round bout if he fights at the lightweight limit?
J. D.
Yes, providing the referee renders a decision or if there is a knockout.

From Austria

Officials of the A. A. U. were at the pier yesterday to welcome Dr. Otto Herschman, President of the Austrian Olympic Committee and official representative of the Austrian Government, who has been sent here to study our athletic system for the benefit of the Austrian Olympic team which will compete in Berlin in 1916. He arrived on the steamship Olympic.

From the pier Dr. Herschman went to the New York Athletic Club, where he was tendered a luncheon by Mr. Sullivan. Mr. Sullivan made a brief speech in behalf of the American public and those interested in athletics, in which he said the officials of the A. A. U. were at his service. After luncheon Dr. Herschman, in company with Mr. Sullivan, visited the playgrounds, public gymnasiums and baths.

Dr. Herschman will be here for about three weeks.
